

What do you mean my life Insurance coverage is expiring prematurely?

By: Henry Montag, CLU, and Martin M. Shenkman, Esq.

A KEY ESTATE PLANNING GUIDE

Law Easy

ChronicIllnessPlanning.org

General Disclaimer

- The information and/or the materials provided as part of this program are intended and provided solely for informational and educational purposes. None of the information and/or materials provided as part of this power point or ancillary materials are intended to be, nor should they be construed to be the basis of any investment, legal, tax or other professional advice. Under no circumstances should the audio, PowerPoint or other materials be considered to be, or used as, independent legal, tax, investment or other professional advice. The discussions are general in nature and not person specific. Laws vary by state and are subject to constant change. Economic developments could dramatically alter the illustrations or recommendations offered in the program or materials.

What do you mean my life Insurance coverage is expiring prematurely?

- I paid the bills I received from the insurance company in full and on time.
- Insured Not aware that 60% of existing life Insurance is Not guaranteed.
- Due to reduced interest rates over last 30+ years and Neglect of owner to increase premiums, 40-45% of those policies are expiring early.
- Why didn't the agent or Insurance Company tell me to increase my premiums?
- But it's Not the Insurance company's responsibility to tell you to increase your premiums. That's the owner's job
- The sooner you find out if there's a problem, the more options you or your client will have to fix the problem, and the less costly it will be.
- The Insurance Company likes when coverage expires prematurely because they keep the premiums and never have to pay a death benefit.

Additional information

- Henry Montag henry@thetolicentereast.com
- Martin M. Shenkman
shenkman@shenkmanlaw.com