

Corporate Transparency Act: Steps to Take in 2023

By: Martin M. Shenkman,
and Jonathan G. Blattmachr

A KEY ESTATE PLANNING GUIDE

Law Easy

ChronicIllnessPlanning.org

General Disclaimer

- The information and/or the materials provided as part of this program are intended and provided solely for informational and educational purposes. None of the information and/or materials provided as part of this power point or ancillary materials are intended to be, nor should they be construed to be the basis of any investment, legal, tax or other professional advice. Under no circumstances should the audio, PowerPoint or other materials be considered to be, or used as, independent legal, tax, investment or other professional advice. The discussions are general in nature and not person specific. Laws vary by state and are subject to constant change. Economic developments could dramatically alter the illustrations or recommendations offered in the program or materials.

Act Now in 2023

- Form new entities in 2023 if you know you will need them in 2024.
- Dissolve entities in 2023 if you don't really need them, but carefully weight the pros and cons.
- Review trusts and modify or decant them before 2024.
- Start to get ready for filings.

Additional information

- Jonathan G. Blattmachr
jblattmachr@pioneerllc.com
- Martin M. Shenkman
shenkman@shenkmanlaw.com